Karen: Did you take your antibiotic?
me: indeed Karen: Great! And eat your veggies - green beans :)
me: I will indeed
me: thanks
Karen: was that the right moleskin?
me: thanks for the moleskin, too
me: but you should read Pattern Recognition, I've already read it Karen: yes, I just loaded it on my nook
me: okay
Karen: I thought you said you lost your copy?
me: I did actually, or maybe gave it to someone Karen: How are you feeling?
me: I'm pretty much recovered but am playing it safe, staying in, etc
Karen: Hey, look at this, just heard sirens and we have a situation near my house:
Karen: http://crimeblog.dallasnews.com/2012/05/dallas-pd-tactical-called-to-smu-where-man-in-crane-is-threatening-to-open-fire.html/
me: written by Wilonsky, he was at the Met Karen: Ah! I think the shooter is getting hot up there and about ready to come down though, sounds like.
me: lol, there's no way he has a rifle
Karen: Nah, sounds like he's got himself in a corner, tv is not even carrying live.
me: that must be embarrasing
Karen: yes...
me: uh oh, SMU didn't use their alert system
